NO SUNDAY SERVICE

The Springfield Mass Transit District (SMTD) has two regular day-time routes that serve Sangamon Avenue at the Illinois State Fairgrounds Monday through Saturday. A special night service route will run on weeknights only beginning Friday, August 12th.

Route 1 - N. 5th and Route 2 - N. 9th will make over 500 trips to the State Fair in 2016. The night service bus will provide 42 weeknight trips from downtown to and from the fairgrounds every 30 minutes from 7pm to 10:30pm.

Adult Fare of $1.25 is required, and buses are only equipped to accept cash and exact change. Transfers are free and must be requested when paying your fare. Bus passes may also be used and are available at several retail locations in Springfield. Visit SMTD.org for a complete list of participating retailers and more information about fares and passes.

Access Springfield provides transportation for persons with disabilities who are unable to use the SMTD fixed-route bus service. Individuals with disabilities must apply to become eligible to use the service. Visit SMTD.org and open the Access Springfield tab for more information.

Fare is $2.50, and Access vehicles pick you up and take you directly to the Main Gate of the State Fair.

To request an application to be mailed or faxed to you, call SMTD Access at (217) 522-8594. For eligible individuals, all rides must be scheduled by the close of business the day before or up to 3 days in advance. To get a ride, call Access Springfield. When making your reservation, give destination, day, date, and time you need to be there.
